

Five-day training programme on tailoring rural women in TS

March 23, 2021

Customized skill development training programme on tailoring under SC Sub-Plan for participants' from Lachampur Villagae, Talamdugu Mandal (Adilabad) and Agraham Potlapally Village, Rajapur Mandal (Mahaboobnagar) Telangana State.

As a part of implementation of Sub-Plan activities a total of 30 participants registered in the training programme as per the schedule started on March 23, 2021 will ends on March 27, 2021.

The programme was organized by the Academy in association with PJTSAU-AICRP-WIA, Rajendranagar, Campus Hyderabad. The programme was inaugurated at AICRP-WIA in which Dr Ch Srinivasa Rao, Director, ICAR-NAARM, Hyderabad was the Guest of Honor and Dr V Praveen Rao, Vice Chancellor, PJTSAU taken part and presided over the function. Dr R Neela Rani, Unit Coordinator welcomed to Dr Ch Srinivasa Rao, Director, ICAR-NAARM, Dr R Praveen Rao, Vice-Chancellor of PJTSAU and also welcomed all the participants of the training programme on March 23, 2021. During inaugural session Director NAARM addressed the participants and informed the group to come out with your own enterprise to support your family and raise your socio-economic status. The Vice Chancellor of the University also motivated the participants to start your own tailoring shops or boutique as there is a lot of demand of readymade garment in his opening remarks. The tailoring machines along with kit of accessories were also distributed by to the participants by Dr Ch Srinivasa Rao and Dr V Praven Rao during the inaugural session. During inaugural session Dr M Balakrishnan, Principal Scientist & Chairman Sub-Plan Committee, Dr Laxman M Ahire, ACTO & Programme Coordinator, Mr Z H Khilzi and other members of the committee were also present.

