

Virtual Training Programme on “Facilitative Teaching Technologies” concludes at ICAR-NAARM

30th October, 2021, Hyderabad

The five-day Training Programme on “Facilitative Teaching Technologies” organized for the Staff Members of three Colleges - MVC, Chennai; VCRI, Namakkal and CFTD, Koduvalli of Tamil Nadu Veterinary and Animal Sciences University, Chennai by the ICAR-National Academy of Agricultural Research Management, Hyderabad from 26th to 30th October, 2021 concluded today.

In his valedictory address, Dr. Ch. Srinivasa Rao, Director, ICAR-NAARM, Hyderabad highlighted the importance of innovative education technology in enhancing the Agri-preneurship among the students. He also emphasized on the various challenges being faced by the Indian agriculture.

In his address, Dr. R. Karunakaran, Dean, MVC urged the faculties for implementing the learning in the day-to-day teaching of the University. Dr. V. Appa Rao, Dean, CFDT outlined the importance of digitalization of education. A total of 30 Faculty Members including the 16 Women Faculties participated in the programme.