

International Women's Day celebrated at ICAR – NAARM

08 March 2022

ICAR- National Academy of Agricultural Research Management celebrated International Women's Day on 08 March, 2022. On this occasion, a workshop on Work-Life balance for Women was organised. Around 60 participants including faculty members, staff, students and farm women attended the programme.

Dr G Venkateshwarlu, Joint Director, ICAR-NAARM highlighted the critical role of women in the work-force and family wellbeing from ancient times to the present day. He also emphasised the importance of women acquiring leadership skills so as to reach higher positions in their career.

Smt Padmavathi, Prathinidhi, Kasturba Gandhi National Memorial Trust, Hyderabad, shared her journey and experiences, as well as the importance of subject on Work-Life balance. She encouraged the attendees to practise self-care and dedicate some time for themselves. She also stated that many women are able to do excellent contribution in various professions because of strong system support available in different forms. Further, she urged for specific rules to help women employees to strike a balance between their personal and professional life.

The programme started with the welcome of participants by Dr. Surya Rathore, Principal Scientist, ICAR- NAARM. She made the house aware of the genesis and significance of International Women's Day. The Programme was coordinated by Dr P. Supriya, Scientist, ICAR-NAARM.

