01-May-2023

Sh. Sanjay Garg, Additional Secretary (DARE) and Secretary (ICAR) visited ICAR-NAARM and interacted with 112th Foundation Course for Agricultural Research Service (FOCARS) today and interacted with scientist probationers of 112th FOCARS. Dr. Ch. Srinivasa Rao, Director of ICAR-NAARM welcomed Sh. Sanjay Garg and apprised him about the Foundation Course and new innovations brought in for the 112th FOCARS.

Sh. Sanjay Garg, in his address, firstly congratulated all for joining the Agricultural Research Service. Sh. Garg has apprised the scientists about the latest reforms which have been implemented such as on-line posting, e-HRMS etc. While emphasizing the importance of the Agricultural Research, he advised the scientist probationers to focus their research career based on three things, namely, Changing National Priorities, needs of the Farmers and orient towards Global Trends. Sh. Garg has mentioned that they should work towards Smart Agriculture as it is the need of the hour.

While answering the questions of FOCARS probationers, Sh. Garg said that ICAR is thriving to become a lean and agile organization. He has also mentioned that unlike administrative services, ARS scientists are expected to focus their work towards organizational goals and encouraged them to collaborate, utilize the facilities available with other scientific organizations so that resources can be better utilized. At the end, Sh. Garg wished all the scientist probationers a bright career and they should become assets to their institutions.

The meeting was ended with vote of thanks from Dr. G. Venkateshwarlu, Joint Director, ICAR-NAARM.
