

Foundation Course Module-I for Newly Recruited AOs & FAOs Concluded at ICAR-NAARM

19-04-2024

The 5-Week Module-I of Foundation Course for newly recruited AOs & FAOs of ICAR concluded today at ICAR-NAARM. During 5-week training program consists class room, lectures, interactions, case studies of administration and financial aspects of the ICAR system and Government of India. Besides rules and regulations; behavior aspects, attitudes, change management, team work, inter-personnel association, stress management, creating positive environment and work culture in the organization. Total 61 participants consisting 32 AOs and 29 FAOs undergone this foundation course. Fifty-four men and 7 women participants represented from different states of India.

Dr. Himanshu Pathak, Secretary DARE and DG ICAR was the Chief Guest of the valedictory function. He congratulated the trainees and asked trainees to work and contribute to the mission and vision of the ICAR. He also urged the officers that they should know organization, love the organization and own the organization after their joining in the respective ICAR Institutions where are posted. The officers should serve the organization with sincerity, dedication and devotion.

Dr Ch.Srinivasa Rao, Director, ICAR-NAARM emphasized the critical role of foundation course in improving the functional and personal attributes which contribute working efficiency in their service. He also suggested AO & FAOs to take the farmer welfare as central philosophy in day to day functioning; for which creating positive environment and work culture in the Institution is most important in the Institution.

Dr G.Venkateswarlu, Joint Director thanked Director General for filling up the vacant posts pending since long which helps in strengthening ICAR. He also suggested that trainees to have a dynamic outlook towards decision making process.

Earlier Sh Vivek Purwar, CAO (SG) & Course Coordinator welcomed the dignitaries and all the participants for the valedictory program and presented brief report of the training program.

The participants expressed that their learning experience at the Academy and look forward to implement the knowledge gained in their respective institutes.

Directors of ICAR-Institutes located at Hyderabad, former Directors, Heads of Regional Stations, faculty and staff of NAARM participated in the function.

The programme ended with a word of thanks by Shri Z.H.Khilji, Comptroller and Course Coordinator.